

On Cape Elizabeth, there are two Light-houses, each at the height of 50 feet, and the lanterns are 125 feet above the sea. They bear NE by E and SW by W of each other, distance apart 55 rods. The south western is revolving, the other a fixt light, and are 400 yards NW of the point of the Cape.