

About  $\frac{3}{4}$  mile in length, ranging nearly East & West, this island is full of trees except a few rods on the eastern point, where the lighthouse is erected. The east & the NE sides of the island have a bold and rocky shore, with a good depth of water at a short distance. The island makes the eastern side of Winter Harbor.

[43216]